

SAW MILL SELECTS CSI SOFTWARE

Facilities to replace legacy system

Houston, TX - Jan 24, 2006 CSI Software announced today that Saw Mill Sports Management has selected Spectrum by CSI Software as its new management software system. Saw Mill chose Spectrum for its extensive capabilities, robust database platform and future enhancement plans.

Saw Mill plans to implement Spectrum over the next four months. The new software will replace various disparate systems and provide Saw Mill with a fully integrated, single source solution and greater product depth and user adoption.

Immediate Return on Investment

"The Saw Mill Management Group selection of CSI Software is illustrative of our continued competitive edge in the health and fitness club market" says Andy Wigderson, Director of Sales and Marketing, CSI Software. "Our software provides a fully integrated, single source solution that will have an immediate return-on-investment in terms of reduced costs, increased revenue and improved customer service".
