Fitness Formula to Standardize on CSI Software

Houston, TX. 09-03-2008 08:00 AM

- CSI Software announced today that Fitness Formula has selected Spectrum NG by CSI Software as its new club management system.
- Fitness Formula, headquartered in Chicago, operates nine clubs in the Chicagoland area and is #36 on the Top 100 with revenues of over $30m.
- The company chose CSI Software because it offered a fully-integrated, single source solution.
- Fitness Formula expects to be fully-deployed by the end of this year.
- Supporting Quotes
 - "I am not only looking forward to Spectrum NG's ability to streamline our operations and improve employee efficiency" says Brian Singleton, Director of Finance at Fitness Formula, "but also the wide array of features which will allow Fitness Formula to provide better service to our customers."
 - "Fitness Formula is our fourth customer in the Top 100 to purchase our product this year" says Jonathan Ross, President and CEO at CSI Software. "By standardizing on CSI Software, they will be able to eliminate numerous disparate systems with an application that can be deployed today."
